MORENCI NEWS AND ITEMS OF LOCAL INTEREST

Miss Maude Terrill was the week end guest of Mr. and Mrs. Gay of Metcalf.

Mrs. Jack Farrell, of Clifton, was calling on old friends here last Saturday.

H. S. Van Gorder, store manager for the P. D. M. Co. was in Clifton on a business mission on Monday of this week.

Mrs. A. L. Carver arrived here on last Sunday evening joining her husband who has been employed in the office of the P. D. M. Co. for some months.

L. J. Owen was confined to his home several days of this week on account of having a slight operation performed on his throat last Saturday afternoon.

Mrs. Minor Simms, of Clifton, accompanied Miss Dorothea McKnight to Morenci on last Saturday and was her guest during the instruction in "Tango" of the Morenci class in the evening.

Mr. Ballowe, pharmacist at the A. C. drug store resigned his position this week and left for Phoenix on Wednesday morning.

Mrs. Frank Root and Miss Harriet Root, of Chicago, Ill., have been the guest of their relative Dave Irwin, of this place.

Mr. Todd and Harlow Brubaker, of Clifton, motored to Morenci on Tuesday and transacted business here.

Messrs. A. T. Thomson, C. B. Nonnamaker and J. D. Williams were business visitors in Clifton on Monday of this week.

Madam Wehrle, of Los Angeles, has opened a dressmaking parlor in the Phelps Dodge Mercantile company store and offers her services in fashionable dressmaking at reasonable prices and perfect satisfaction.

Quite an enjoyable affair was the surprise party given by the Daughters of Rebekah to Miss Anna Moore, a member of the society in honor of her birthday, on Friday evening of last week. The ladies arrived well laden with good things to eat, and the evening was spent in a very pleasant manner with music and a social good time.

About twenty of the "Stray Elks" in camp journeyed by horse and auto stage to Clifton on Wednesday evening, where they were the guests of Clifton Lodge B. P. O. E. No. 1174. An election of officers for the ensuing year was held and a general entertainment and banquet was provided in conclusion of the affair. All the boys stayed until the last call, and report an excellent time.

Surpassing all expectations as to patronage, the recently established soda fountain in the Morenci club is becoming quite a center of attraction. Scarcity of competent help made it necessary to send for another high class dispenser and through the influence of Mr. McCauley, his friend H. E. Lenihan, of Pasadena, California, has accepted a position as an assistant. Mr. Lenihan was recently employed with Skillen and Skillen, of the above named city and comes well recommended. The musicians from the club picture show give numerous concerts in the soda parlor, much to the appreciation of the patrons.

Morenci lodge I. O. O. F. met in regular session last week and during the meeting the selection of delegates to attend the Grand Lodge to meet in Phoenix on April 20th was made. The following will attend: Messrs. T. H. Clarke, R. J. Uren, and D. A. Smith. Alternates, E. J. Rublen, Albert Allen, and I. H. Seth. L. E. Rice, Grand Warden will make his usual trip and an interesting meeting is expected.

The local stage auto owned by D. M. Cansler was laid up for repairs this week on account of a broken pin in one of the gears. It is hoped the car will be on the road again soon, as the car is pleasant to ride in and much appreciated by many patrons from Morenci.

With all the latest styles in dresses and hats on display, having been purchased during the Eastern buying trip in January, the annual opening of the Phelps Dodge Mercantile company will be held on Tuesday, March 10th. The beautiful outlay of spring dress goods, neckwear, ribbons etc., ready to be offered to the public, is no doubt one of the choicest selections ever purchased, the ideas of quality and taste as well as price being kept foremost during buying. A complete line of absolutely new gents furnishings is also being offered each day as the goods arrive, and it is certain the gala day in the store will be a complete success. An orchestra has been provided for the occasion to entertain the ladies, while pretty souvenirs have been ordered to give to the many expected visitors.

In the auditorium of the schools, the Parents-Teachers Association held their meeting here on last Saturday afternoon. A representative number of teachers were in attendance from Clifton and including the local corps of teachers and interested parents, the meeting was a decided success in both an educational and social way. The following interesting program was rendered: Morning session. Song—by a Trio of Teachers. Discussion of primary arithmetic. Song—Mrs. Weller. Discussion of Intermediate Arithmetic.

Drawing—Miss Bain. Song—Audience. Afternoon Session. Song—High School Glee Club. Discussion—Sixth and seventh grade arithmetic.

Instrumental Music—Orchestra. Mexican dances. Discussion—Eighth grade arithmetic. Piano Selection—Miss Harrar. Reading—Miss Sexton. Song—Audience. During the business session, over which Supt. C. A. Goggin presided, it was decided by vote of the teachers to hold the next meeting in Metcalf. The prime movers of this recently organized association are much pleased with the results of the first meeting and anticipate much good from the close association of parents and teachers in the discussion of school work.

As the fifth and last entertainment of the Club course for this winter, "The Four Artists" will appear before the Morenci public on Wednesday evening February 10. These musicians come to Morenci with established reputations as high class artists in the musical world and without doubt there is a treat in store for music lovers.

Ever on the watch for items pleasing to all classes of readers of this column, the correspondent has discovered a local rhymster in Morenci. Although not a member of the newly organized "Tango Class" this word and meaning assembler was no doubt impressed with the general pro and con discussion of the dance and has written the following:

Tango
What is the topic most discussed
Down in the canyon, on the hills,
Inside the schools and at the Club,
'Till all the atmosphere it fills;
At breakfast and at luncheon time,
At twilight, when the day is done,
Within the homes, at the Hotel,
And even while the pictures run?
THE TANGO.

When Bro. Landers, list in hand,
And feeling in a right good humor,
Approached, in manner suave and bland,
A dusky son of Montezuma,
With "Join our class—put up a 'V',
And learn to dance the hesitation";
The hombre said, with look askance,
Which was sufficient explanation,

"NO TENGO."

The people of Morenci Town. Because so deeply interested, They searched about until they found A 'Tangolst' who can't be bested; And so she's here, within our midst, To teach Miss H. Grace Towle and Bury. And countless others on the list. To dance and dance and dance like fury.

THE TANGO.

Methinks that should some soul ascend From this old camp, just at this time, And, listening for St. Peter's call, The 'Password' to the realm sublime! That soul, remembering while on earth It was indeed a fancy dancer, Would volunteer (but not in mirth) And quickly give this lucid answer, TANGO.

PENALTY FIXED AT DEATH

Jury Says Leonard and Tomlin Must Die for the Murder of Marshal Hi Peterson of Mesa—Dramatic Incidents of Trial.

PHOENIX—Leonard and Tomlin will die for killing Marshal Hi Peterson in Mesa on the 12th of November, last. At 3:40 o'clock yesterday the jury in the case returned the verdict of guilty of murder in the first degree, and fixed the penalty at death. The boys will be sentenced Wednesday morning next at 9:30 o'clock, when they will appear before Judge Phillips for the final time.

Until they are sentenced the boys will be confined in the county jail. Under special guard, who will be in the cell day and night till they are transferred to the penitentiary, they will be constantly watched for fear they might make another attempt at escape, or that they might try to harm one another or themselves. Following the verdict of the jury they were led to the sheriff's office, where new clothes were given them and all their belongings taken off their persons. They were then placed in confinement.

When the jury entered the courtroom at 3:40 o'clock yesterday a look at their faces told the verdict. When they came to the stand and their names were called, their voices told the verdict. When the judge glanced at the verdict and handed it to the clerk, his motions told the verdict. And the first words of the clerk told in tone that the verdict was death. The defendants eyed the jury from their entry. But the jury did not look at the defendants. When the sentence was passed, Leonard smiled and Tomlin, across whose face no sign of emotion has passed since the start of the trial, wore the same mask of impassive sullenness. Leonard smiled till he passed to the door on the way from the court room. Then he gulped, swallowing the lumps in his throat. But no word passed from the mouths of either.
